Corporate Volunteer Council OF THE GREATER PORTLAND AREA

Mission

The Corporate Volunteer Council of the Greater Portland Area is dedicated to helping its members respond to community needs through the promotion of volunteerism and community affairs.

Membership

All member businesses should have or the desire to establish an active employee volunteer program. Member businesses pay annual $200 membership dues and designate an employee to serve as a representative at monthly CVC meetings.

Activities & Sponsorships

HEART of the COMMUNITY AWARDS

Presented by the Portland Trail Blazers and Hands On Greater Portland, the Heart of the Community Awards recognizes outstanding accomplishments in volunteering and service by individuals.

Objectives

- Promote corporate volunteerism in the Greater Portland Area.
- Provide professional education, resources, and networking opportunities for corporate volunteer managers.
- Inform membership of local needs and issues.
- Provide leadership and expertise in corporate volunteerism.

Community & National Partners

OREGON MENTORS is committed to the dramatic expansion of quality programs that provide mentors for young people in Oregon. Oregon Mentors is affiliated with the Portland Business Alliance.

HANDS ON GREATER PORTLAND builds community and enriches lives by making volunteering easy and by empowering volunteers. Hands On creates meaningful volunteer opportunities, develops volunteer leaders, and raises awareness of community issues.

NORTHWEST OREGON VOLUNTEER ADMINISTRATORS ASSOCIATION (NOVAA) is a professional association comprised of individuals responsible for the administration of volunteer programs.

NATIONAL COUNCIL ON CORPORATE VOLUNTEERISM advises The Points of Light Institute on issues affecting corporate volunteerism by enhancing the quality of corporate volunteer programs across the United States.

POINTS OF LIGHT INSTITUTE/HANDS ON NETWORK is dedicated to motivating leaders and organizations to mobilize others for community service directed at solving the most serious social problems facing society today.

OREGON STATE COMMISSION FOR VOLUNTARY ACTION AND SERVICE provides Oregonians with a state-wide entity to focus service and volunteer efforts, enhance the ethic of service and voluntarism, and to provide funds for state-based AmeriCorps programs.
